Index écotouristique

Choisir des circuits ou des hébergements tournés vers l'écologie est une excellente manière de limiter son impact sur l'environnement. Mais comment distinguer les établissements et entreprises effectivement soucieux du respect de l'environnement de ceux qui se contentent de prendre le train en marche, parce que c'est dans le vent ?

La certification d'Ecotourism Australia (www.ecotourism.org.au) garantit un niveau élevé d'exigence. Les sites ou attractions touristiques, circuits organisés et lieux d'hébergement indiqués ci-après ont tous été sélectionnés par les auteurs de Lonely Planet en raison de leur véritable politique d'écotourisme et de développement durable. Nous souhaitons continuer à étoffer notre liste d'adresses écologiques. N'hésitez pas à nous signaler d'éventuelles omissions ou, le cas échéant, votre désaccord avec certains de nos choix, via l'adresse Internet lonelyplanet@placedeseditors.com. Pour de plus amples informations, voir aussi :

Sustainable Travel International (www.sustainabletravelinternational.org). Cette ONG a développé un programme d'écocertification.
